Luchini Bros. Wholesale and Retail Fruit Store, AlmaA HIGH STANDARD SHOW.

G. J. Lanshaw and his company of high standard people highly entertained a large audience at the Temple Theatre Monday evening with the dramatic success, "St. Elmo." Although working under a handicap owing to the extremely small stage which made it absolutely impossible for the company to use any of the extra scenery it carries. But notwithstanding this fact, the entertainment was one of the best dramatic efforts ever staged in this city.

Mr. Lanshaw is an actor of culture and refinement, and each and every member of his company are people that are a credit to their profession, and the audience enjoyed the dramatization of that quaint old story by Augusta J. Evans, "St. Elmo."—A Benton Harbor paper.

Boys:—

Is your old pipe getting strong and looking like it had seen better days? Don't throw it away, tie a ribbon around it and hang it on the wall. Keep it for the good it has done, then come in and select a dandy new one from our new stock of pipes.
